About CAC AmeriCorps:

Established in 1994, CAC AmeriCorps is a national service program that combines elements of traditional conservation practice with community action that informs our work and places it in the broader context of the region. CAC AmeriCorps members serve to improve public lands, streams and greenways, educate the public, meet immediate human needs, eliminate barriers to employment, contribute to healthier lifestyles, and build volunteer capacity to enhance the ability of our partners to get things done. We are committed to human and environmental justice in our communities through enduring acts of service.

Site Summary:

The UT Office of Sustainability is committed to promoting the responsible consumption of human, economic, and environmental resources on the University of Tennessee, Knoxville campus. We use holistic data collection and analysis to inform sustainability initiatives and develop collaborations with campus and community partners to reduce the environmental impacts of the University's operations, all while engaging the campus community in what it means to Make Orange Green.

Position Summary:

The AmeriCorps member serving as the Office of Sustainability's Academic Engagement Specialist will engage University of Tennessee, Knoxville professors and students in the UT Sustainability Research Internship Program and other similar efforts. In order to recruit student interns, the AmeriCorps member will promote the UT Sustainability Research Internship Program to professors, classes, clubs, and organizations. Every semester, the AmeriCorps member will interview and select 6 to 10 (or more) student interns that will conduct research on an Office of Sustainability program or initiative of their choice. The AmeriCorps member will be in charge of guiding student interns' research by helping them to create a project proposal, timeline, and final product.

Other duties of the AmeriCorps member will involve coordinating a variety of committee meetings, serving as a representative of the Office of Sustainability at campus and community events that may occur at night or on the weekend and working as a Zero Waste Gameday team member.
